Imprisenment for Violation of Injunctions in Selling Lewing Machines. IIOBS IN SCHING LEWING MACKINES.

A. R. JOSEPH THORN has been arrested by the United States Marshal, and lodged in Eldridge street jail, for violating an injunction by selling sewing machines. On moden of George Gifford, Esq., an attachment was granted by Judge Smally, in the United States Couri, against the defendant, for selling tewing machines, in violation of an infunction Issued against him, on the patents ow and by the Wheeler & Wilson Manufacturing Company, and the Groter & Raker Sewing Machine Company, and known as the sewing machine feed patent. Violating the order of Courts is rather a serious matter, as it renders the offender to punishment by fine and imprisonment—New York Times.

BOOT AND SHOE STORE. FERDINAND PAESOLD,

Would call the attention of the citizens of Joliet and vicinity, that he has opened a Boot and Shoe Store, on the corner of Bluff and Cross sts., near the Middle Bridge

I will state to my friends and the publicin general, in justice to myself, that one of our cituzens by the name of Edward Savage, who professes to be what he does has caused to be published such an advertisement about 0. Fox's Gift Book Store and Brass Jewelry.

Do you think much of such a man who trys to injure one who never in any way tried to injure him! It is nothing more than jealosy in business matters.—Kow I will state that for the past three years my Miscellaneous Book trade, and such I presume has been the case with Mr. Savago's, has been very small, scarsely nothing to speak of. And where has the trade gone? To Now York and Philladeiphia, to the Gift Book Store of Evans, and in protection to myself, when I was in New York I made arrangements with Publishers for Books at very low rates, and made arrangements with one of the largest publishing houses in New York to get me a catalogue, which has been published. Now I will state to my friends and customers of the Western States, that I have as fine Gold Jewelry as any house has, and the largest, finest and best selected stock of any house in the City.

In a few days I shall receive a very fine addition to my present stock in the way of Silver Tea Sets, Gold Walches, Silver Watches, and all kinds of the best e ceted stock, and all parties buying books from me I will give them 25 per cent, off of my Catalogus, which is better than our triend Savage's 10 per cent; if they do not wish to take their gift. My Gift Book business is conducted on a different plan from other houses.—At the time the gift is given I will show them the blank book in which the gift is written in black ink, and numbered to currespond with the number on the goods and specifying the article, and if they are not astisfied with their gifts I will take off 25 per cent. From what they paid for the books and will guarantee all of my patrons that they will be well satisfied. Call at 0. Fex's and buy your Holiday Presents. I have a fine stock of Children, Ladies and Gents Furs, and aside from Bo to make your selections, and I will sell you all kinds which I keep lower than anyother house. Jollet, Bec. 25, 1860. Look to your Interest. If you do so, you shurely will purchase a sett of Wheel Regulators for your Wagon, of Francis Schwalm's Patent Wheel Regulator. Examine his it vertice, and you will at once be convinced of the truth, that you will save at least $2.50 per year, which you would have to pay in setting your tires, and about the same amount in the preservation of your wheels. These regulators will tighten your tires, and will give you facility to untighten it at your pleasure, when your wheels swell by the effect of damp weather, in order to not sprain or dish your wheels, and will also give you facility to take your wheels to pleces when it needs repairing, without losing your time in going to town and paying the money, which if you chose you can earn yourself.
